Fact or Myth

- Participation in sport is always beneficial and never harmful.

- Cities are not responsible for what happens between a coach and an athlete in their municipality.

- Safeguarding in sport guidelines are available.

- Cities hosting mega sporting events have risks associated with child and youth rights.

UNICEF in Belarus works in the following directions regarding S4D:

- Safeguarding;
- Inclusion;
- Volunteers’ engagement;
- Ideas’ promotion: participation over winning and responsible parenting;
- Implementation J4C program through sport;
- Partnership and empowerment of local sports organization.
Safeguarding

- Make sport enjoyable and safe;
- Adopt international safeguarding principles to local context;
- Tackle violence against children in sport (bullying, overtraining, corporal punishment)
Inclusion

- In a long-run, make mainstream PE curriculum more inclusive;
- Promoting adaptable sport activities;
- Inclusion of children with disabilities through play-based learning
Volunteers engagement

Breakout Session

1. What is the most important action that a city/municipality can take to ensure that more children have access to sports?

2. What is the most important action that a city/municipality can take to ensure that children are protected in the sport environment?

3. What is the most important action that a city/municipality can take to enable children to share their views about the sports in their communities that affect them?

4. Bonus question: How could these three actions be funded/resourced?
Thank you!
