CHILDREN’S RIGHTS IN SPORT

Japan Committee for UNICEF
Japan Committee for UNICEF & UNICEF HQs launched Children's Rights in Sport Principles in November 2018

- Developed with the support of the government’s Sport Agency, all major sport organizations in Japan
- Governments issued a notification to disseminate the Principles
The Principles emphasize:
- the importance of all stakeholders working together so that
- all children participate in sport in a safe and enjoyable environment
SPORTS ORGANIZATIONS,
EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS,
COACHES

1. Respect and Support Children’s Rights
2. Consider Balanced Growth of Children through Sports
3. Protect Children from the Risk of Sports
4. Protect Health of Children
5. Governance Systems
6. Capacity & Engagement
SPONSORING COMPANIES

7. Incorporate children’s rights in sponsorship decisions

8. Engage with the Organizations who are sponsored
9. Approach and dialogue with stakeholders
PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

10. Support the healthy growth of children through sports

https://childinsport.jp/en/
Children's Rights in Sport Principles provide local governments with opportunities:
- not only to address child safeguarding in sport
- but also to promote safe and enjoyable sporting environment for all children!

Tomiya City’s official ceremony to promote Children's Rights in Sport Principles